

Where Batteries Are Used

- I. Electrical
  - a. Appliances: electric shavers, toothbrushes, robot vacuum cleaners
  - b. Flashlights
  - c. Lawnmowers and trimmers
  - d. Power tools: electric drill/screwdriver, etc.
- II. Automotive and Other Vehicles
  - a. Garage door openers
  - b. Golf carts
  - c. Hybrid electric automobiles
  - d. Remote keyless entry devices
  - e. Scooters for the elderly and infirm
  - f. Standard vehicle power Electronics
- III. Consumer Electronics
  - a. Calculators
  - b. Camcorders, cameras, and flash units
  - c. Cassette, CD and DVD players
  - d. Cell and cordless phones
  - e. Hearing aids
  - f. GPS receivers
  - g. Laptop computers
  - h. MP3 music players
  - i. Personal digital assistants (PDAs)
  - j. Radio controlled planes, boats, cars.
  - k. Radios and TVs: including two-way radios: commercial, CB, ham
  - l. Remote controls
  - m. Smoke detectors
  - n. Toys and robots
  - o. Watches and clocks
- IV. Industrial
  - a. Aircraft power supplies
  - b. Back up power for cell phone base stations, navigation
  - c. Fork lifts
  - d. Hybrid-diesel electric trains
  - e. Light rail trains
  - f. Medical monitors
  - g. Satellites
  - h. Uninterruptible power supplies (UPS) for computers
- V. Military
  - a. GPS receivers and other navigation devices
  - b. Laser targeting devices
  - c. Night vision goggles
  - d. Radios and laptop computers
  - e. Selected weapons (missile and rocket launchers)

How many applications did you get?