Ninety-two percent of ATE grantees completed the 2014 ATE survey. Of these 221 respondents, 104 (47%) indicated that they provided professional development for secondary school teachers in 2013. This group was asked a series of questions about how they evaluated this aspect of their grant-funded work. The results are presented below.

67% of ATE grantees that provided professional development at the secondary level evaluated their professional development work.
